FAQs

Q: Can a customer combine a Family Bundle (PROMO-0002) with a Holiday Bundle (PROMO-0008) on the same account?

A: No. Promotional bundles cannot be stacked with each other. Only one bundle promotion is permitted per account per transaction.

Q: A customer whose 12-month Premium Upgrade (PROMO-0001) is expiring in 15 days calls to inquire about renewal. What should the representative offer?

A: The representative should present current available promotions based on the customer's account status. The expired promotion cannot be reactivated. If the customer is Active, they may qualify for any current offer. A 30-day expiry notice should have already been sent.

Q: Can a delinquent customer receive a referral credit (PROMO-0006) in addition to the Win-Back Unlimited offer (PROMO-0005)?

A: No. Win-Back Unlimited is exclusive to delinquent customers and cannot be combined with any other promotion, including referral credits.

Q: How does the $200 Device Trade-In Bonus (PROMO-0003) apply if the customer also has a Premium Upgrade (PROMO-0001) plan discount?

A: This combination is permitted. A plan discount and a device trade-in credit may be applied to the same account. The plan discount appears monthly for 12 months; the device credit is applied as a one-time instant credit.

Q: What documentation is required to verify Senior Plan eligibility (PROMO-0007)?

A: The customer must provide valid proof of age 65 or older. Acceptable documentation includes a government-issued ID, driver's license, passport, or Medicare/Social Security card. The representative must record the verification in the customer account before applying the senior discount.

Q: A customer attempts to apply two device promotions (PROMO-0003 and PROMO-0004) on the same device purchase. Is this allowed?

A: No. Two device promotions cannot be applied to the same device or transaction. The representative must assist the customer in selecting the single best device promotion available to them.
